

The pronouns I and we can be used in the subject of a sentence.

The pronouns me and us can be used in the predicate of a sentence.

Name yourself last when talking about yourself and another person.

Write I or me to complete each sentence.

1. My friend and _____ found a lost puppy.
2. Mary asked _____ to help her clean her room.
3. She asked _____ to do all her chores.
4. _____ am walking my dog in the park.
5. Can you go with _____ to the lunchroom?

Write we or us to complete each sentence.

1. Carter is going with _____ to see the movie.
2. _____ are going to have popcorn and a drink.
3. Mom asked _____ to be quiet during the movie.
4. My dad couldn't go with _____.
5. _____ had a lot of fun!