

A pronoun is a word that replaces a noun or nouns.

A present-tense verb tells about an action that is happening right now.

A present-tense action verb must agree with the subject pronoun of the sentence.

Circle the verbs that correctly complete the sentences.

1. He (like, likes) to play baseball.
2. She (plays, play) soccer.
3. Her teacher (watch, watches) her play.
4. She (learn, learns) all about football.
5. He (play, plays) every Friday.
6. It (show, shows) how much he loves sports.
7. He (think, thinks) he will be good at sports.
8. She (run, runs) a lot during her game.

