

Underline or italicize all words in the title of a book.

Begin the first word, last word, and each important word in a book title with a capital letter.

Any unimportant word such as a, and, for, of, the, and to should not begin with a capital letter unless it is the first word.

Write the titles correctly on the lines.

1. The book, long ago in our city, tells about our town.

2. I liked the book, rosy puppy pal.

3. Our teacher read the book, george washington's mother, to us.

4. I liked reading the book, over on the other side.

5. My friend read a book called, big ben of pine mountain.

6. We are going to read over on the lake in class next week.

7. When will we read a gift from the past?

8. My favorite book is look into the meadow.
